To whom it might concern:

Our collaboration with Criomec S.A. Galati last for several years, in the field of industrial gases and cryogenics. The company was involved in major investment projects, in spot projects all over the country as well as in maintenance activity for our running facilities, performing mechanical erection of equipment and piping, electrical works and also instrumentation-automation. During this period the company has demonstrated a high professionalism of its people and very good reactivity in performing various tasks. Communication was done easily and had a significant role in smoothing the completion of the jobs. The quality of the performed works was excellent revealing again the high skills of the people. Same time the company proved that is target oriented performing the jobs according the imposed time schedule.

Therefore we recommend Criomec S.A Galati as being a reliable partner you can count on.
